STATE FAIR SLATES. OF GIRL IS CLEARED. OF CONFERENCE YEAR Married Man and Young Woman Had New London County Fair to Be Held September 4-6.

With the arrest in Lawrence of Netson R. King, a married man of New Bedford, and a young woman with whom he was living and who it is charged, he virtually held as a prisoner, the mysterious disappearance of Miss Florence Colwell of 281 Shawmut avenue, New Bedford, has been cleared.

Miss Colwell and King, who was also known as Roy, cloped on Dec. 20, 1915. The parents of the girl, Mr. and Mrs. John Colwell, searched for her, but linally gave her up as lost. They were not located till June 16, when the girl fled from Jewett City, where they had been living, after accusing him of cruei and abusive treatment.

They were arrested on a statutory charge, but, according to the police, a more serious one will be placed against King when arraigned.
